

ALIVE 85

THE ULTIMATE TRIBUTE TO "THE KING" AND THE SHOW THAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN

There have been 1000's of tribute shows to The King but never one like this!!!
Be prepared to be shocked and amazed as Alive 85 begins where all other leave off!
Imagine if you will, it's 1985 and Elvis Presley is still alive and well, still doing his amazing live show but now he is in competition with the 80's rock gods like Bon Jovi, Poison, Motley Crue, Whitesnake, ect.. the list goes on and on...

So Buckle up as international recording and touring artist Steve Unger plays the role of The King and takes you on a epic fantasy adventure to bring you the Elvis show that never was...

Stelvis AKA- (Steve Unger) is the bassist for the international recording and touring rock band Metal Church and has been in the music entertainment industry for over 30 years playing with many well known acts. His experience includes, Bass guitar, Guitar, Vocals, Live performance, Touring, Studio engineer and recording artist, Pro audio and lighting, Video, Artist booking, Artist management, Artist development and promotion. All this experience along with his true love of both the King and music itself will make this show a smashing success...

PRESS QUOTES

"Steve and Jessica bring their own style and rendition to the stage and put on a show the King himself would applaud."
~ Chrissy Alexander/Emerald Downs event coordinator

"Super high energy and unique performance that every single person in my show's motley demographic loved!"
~ Angelica Rose/Jazzbones event coordinator

"Alive 85 is a breath of fresh air to Elvis tributes shows. The show was an amazing and unbelievable fantasy show that still had enough authenticity to be believable."
~ Anita Woo, Royal Bear owner/event coordinator, Algona Washington
